

Digital File 'celebrity prize giving for moon festival.doc'

To celebrate the Mid Autumn Festival which falls this coming Tuesday, 28 September, Chinese Arts Centre joined forces with Manchester's new contemporary Cantonese eatery Wings Restaurant.

On Sunday 26 September Wings Restaurant hosted a celebrity prize-giving lantern making competition. The winning lantern was by 10 year old Joanne Price from St Mary's RC, primary school in Denton. International Manchester City football player Sun Jihai was present to award the winning children with their prizes. The competition was judged by Chinese musician Xu Tong, art officer WanJun Li from the Chinese Students Association and Amy Cham curant artist in residence at Chinese Arts Centre.

Prizes were also awarded to Katherine Brand from Stockport Grammar primary school, Jodi Gannon also from St Mary's RC primary school, Denton and Ali Ahmed from Broadbalk primary school in Didsbury.

IDENTIFIER

GB3451/OC/D/1801/112

ARTIST

Chinese Arts Centre, 1989-2013; Wing's Restaurant, Manchester; Cham, Amy, (b. 1980), artist; Doocey, Alyson, CAC marketing mangager (2003-2008)