Scope and Content

Audio CD documenting the project: Mondays was Washday by Suki Chan in 2002.

The work was created by the artist over 10 month while she was the resident artist in Leigh, Lancashire. The project brought together members of the older and younger generations in the town to reminiscence about their experiences. The work was presented at the Turnpike Gallery, Leigh, as a multimedia exhibition in April 2002.

The audio CD contains curated oral histories collected by the artist during the project. (1 audio CD ; 1 24 pages)
