Scope and Content
Exhibition catalogue for Liu Wei's exhibition Inside the White Cuve at the White Cube Gallery, London, 9 Mar -12 May 2012.

The exhibiiton contained various works of visionary forms of architecture using found materials such as printed matter and timber frames. Liu's practice combines painting with three-dimensional sculptures and installations to express his fascination for urban architecture. His work methods rely on steady accretion and accumlation which grow more layered over time and the form of his sculptures are constantly in flux.
